"I'll try"	"Not sure I can do it"
"The truth is..."	"I probably shouldn't tell you this"
"To be honest..."	"I was lying up until now"
"Hopefully"	"Who really knows?"
"Maybe" or "Possible"	"I really have no idea"

OTHER EXAMPLES OF TRAGIC LANGUAGE

THE WORD
"WE"

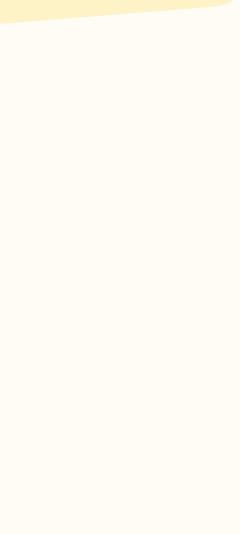

The word "we" in a conversation with a customer can sound vague. It can leave the customer wondering "Who" will take action and who to call for follow-up. It can also sound like you want little or nothing to do with the issue.

SLANGS
AND JARGONS
AND ACRONYMS

These are words and phrases that are regarded as very informal.

Examples include:

- > Yeah
- > Gotcha'
- > You betcha'
- > Awesome
- > You feel me?

Commonly used acronyms that customers may find difficult to understand:

MX - Mortgage Express

DTI - Debt to Income

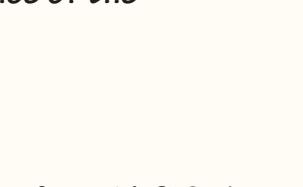

LTV - Loan to Value

CD - Closing Disclosure

LE - Loan Estimate

If you catch yourself using an acronym, make sure you explain the meaning behind it. When in doubt, use simpler language!

TURNING TRAGIC TO MAGIC

Exploring Impacts of Negative Customer Experiences

Did you know?

Customers can make a decision about you, your department and your company from just one contact.

Impacts of Negative Customer Experiences

5x
Costs

It can cost five times as much to obtain a new customer as it does to retain an existing one. Depending on the industry, that ratio can run as high as 20:1!

2/3

Nearly two-thirds of customers said they would stop using a company if they had one bad experience.

68%

According to a CEO survey, 68% people stop doing business with a company because they received an attitude of indifference from someone representing the company.

20x

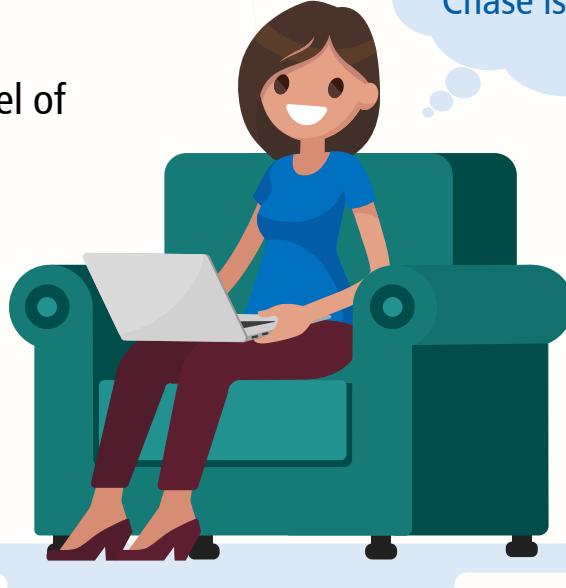

Personal interaction over the phone can have twenty times the impact of ads in terms of shaping customers' opinions and generating referrals.

6%
Gain

Businesses with a consistent level of high-quality service gain market share at a rate of 6% a year.

10%
More

Businesses with a consistent level of high quality service can charge approximately 10% more than competitors.

Ask Yourself

"Is the experience I am providing on the home loan earning us the opportunity to do more business with this customer?"
